

The event in terms of numbers:

Races:

- 17 wax-containers are on hand for the nations
- Racers from 20 different nations will participate in the races
- The winner's trophy, a hand-carved bear, has a size of 65,4 cm
- 90 (Giant Slalom), respectively 80 (Super G) athletes will participate in the races on the weekend
- 300 radio sets guarantee the communication during the races
- 436 m: the length of the Giant Slalom
- 646 m height difference will have to be hurdled in the Super-G
- The World-Cup-community comprises 700 athletes and advisors
- 1523 m: The length of the Giant Slalom
- The Super-G has a total length of 2116 m
- 17.000 m of security fences ensure the safety of the athletes
- The athletes can win 330.000 CHF of prize money

Infrastructure:

- 35 toilets are positioned on and around the event area
- 46 snow cannons produce the required snow for the slope
- 70 trucks deliver the goods for the event
- 70 parking lots are available for busses
- The grand stand has a weight of 150 tons
- 250 guide markers show the way to Hinterstoder
- 2.000 car lots are available in and around Hinterstoder
- 2.100 tons of material have been obstructed
- 2.600 kW of electricity supply is prepared
- 2.870 m of fences for the visitors areas are in use during the weekend
- 100.000 m³ artificial snow have been produced

Medical care:

- 1 provisional medical centre has been established
- 6 emergency vehicles
- 8 doctors
- 20 people from the mountain rescue
- 25 medics

Visitors:

- The grand stand provides space for 3.720 visitors
- 14.000 visitors are awaited for every race day

Catering:

- 20 chefs will cook for the guests
- 250 World-Cup-Cakes will be served at Café Annemarie
- 3.000 m² of tent area will be feasted
- 5.000 servings of fryer will be freshly made
- 20.000 litres of hot beverages (hot punch and tea) will be poured out
- 25.000 litres of beer and 25.000 litres of non-alcoholic beverages will be consumed during the weekend
- 50.000 pieces of bread and other types of pastry will be given out
- 50.000 cups for hot beverages will be consumed

Media:

- 3 speaker-towers
- 7 camera-towers
- 27 ORF-cameras will broadcast the event all over the world
- The media-centre comprises 100 jobs
- 200 accredited employees work in the area of print and photo
- 350 accredited journalists produce articles
- 500 press-articles before, during and after the races

Auxiliaries/Volunteers:

- 250 members of the security-staff, respectively members of rescue organizations, ensure the safety during the event
- 700 servings of lunch supply the volunteers during the preparatory work
- 800 persons are in the direct line of duty during the race days
- 2.000 lunch-packages will be handed out to the volunteers
- 2.000 pieces of cake made by the local gastronomy, respectively by the gymnastics club of Hinterstoder, soothe the preparatory work of the auxiliaries
- 18.000 hours of work are accomplished solely by the volunteers